NEXT LONG WALK - Sunday 7th August 2016

CARN AN RIGH AND GLAS TULAICHEAN

Distance 26 km. Ascent 1200m. OS Map 43.

Two of the three remote Munros accessible from the Spittal of Glenshee. We start at the Dalmunzie Hotel (note £2.50 charge for car parking). An anticlockwise route takes us up Glen Taitneach, on track and path (two burn crossings – bring spare socks) to Loch nan Eun. Briefly on soft ground a well delineated path leads to the bealach between Mam nan Carn and Carn an Righ then a short but steep ascent to the summit. We retrace our step then cut across soft ground to pick up at approx. NO057773 the northern ridge of Glas Tulaichan, where a walker's path leads to the summit. A track from the summit takes us back down past the ruins of Glenlochsie Lodge, along the track of the former railway, to our cars. Total Time: Approx. 8 hours.

Meet at St. Peter's Heritage Centre, Culter, at 7.30am. Return around 7.45pm

Transport by car (drivers required) – contribution to drivers please.

NEXT SHORTER WALK – Sunday 7th August 2016

BEN EARB

Distance 10km. Ascent 530m. OS Map 43

The ascent to Ben Earb follows a ridge with excellent views of hills all around. The starting point is at Spittal of Glenshee at GR109699 and at first follows the Cateran Trail on a gently rising path to the col An Lairig at GR094684. After this a fence is followed to a high point at 728m. We continue to follow this fence over an undulating ridge to the final ascent of Ben Earb, 801m. We then retrace our steps down the mountain and descend NE via a grassy valley to Glen Lochsie. Time approx. 4 hours 50 minutes.

Meet at St. Peter's Heritage Centre, Culter, at 9am. Return flexible.

Transport by car, contribution to drivers please.
