

Culter Hillwalking Club

NEXT WALK – SUNDAY 4th November 2018

Tullynessle to Rhynie via Lord Arthurs Hill

Total distance 15km, ascent 470m, 5Hrs OS Map 37

We shall leave the majority of vehicles in Rhynie and travel round to the start of the walk at Terpersie NJ548200. From here the route will take us over Manabattock Hill, Black Hill and then on to the main target of the day, Lord Arthurs Hill. The route is then over towards Edinbanchory Hill, Brux Hill, Badingair Hill before the gentle descent down towards the Iron Age Fort at Cairn More. Country lanes are then taken past Bankhead, Barflat and on to Rhynie. Refreshments at Alford Bistro.

Note: This is an easy walk but does have a little bit of a climb not long after the start. Moderate level of fitness required.

Meet at St Peter's Heritage Centre 8.30am. Transport by shared cars.

Contact Graham Neish (Tel 01975 962052, Mob 07905843704) indicating if you would be willing to drive.

Closing date Wednesday 31st October

Walkers must wear walking boots (gaiters also recommended), carry WARM and waterproof clothing, hat and gloves and take plenty of food and liquids. THESE ARE ESSENTIAL. Be prepared for possible wintry conditions on the top, whatever the forecast.

Culter hillwalking club has no members who are qualified leaders or instructors. Therefore anyone volunteering to assist the club on a walk cannot be held responsible for other members' welfare. Members must be aware they are solely responsible for themselves at all times. Hillwalking and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury and death. Those participating in these activities should be aware of the risks and accept the responsibility for their own actions and involvement. No responsibility can be accepted by Culter Hillwalking club committee, members, guests or co-ordinators of walks for any mishap, which may occur, during a walk. Dog owners must ensure that their dogs are on a short lead at all times.
