

Culter Hillwalking Club

NEXT WALK – SUNDAY 3rd NOVEMBER 2019

MORMOND HILL

Distance 14 kms. Ascent 370 metres OS Sheet 30

A white horse, a giant stag and the most gorgeous 360 views of Moray and up to the Grampians and beyond – what is not to like on a fine autumn day (booked)? We set off from West Street in Strichen, ref NJ945555, and head up to the White Horse on Waughton Hill where we will also find the ruined Hunter's Lodge. Lots of history here, which your intrepid leader will explain on the day. Then it's on past the Early Warning System on Mormond Hill to see the giant White Stag above New Leeds before returning to Strichen and the truly outstanding Café 1909 for a decent coffee and excellent scan.

This is an easy walk, a walk for all and I look forward to seeing everyone there.

Total Time: Approx. 4 hrs including breaks.

Note: This walk is fairly straightforward in good weather and requires a moderate level of fitness.

Meet at Culter Village Hall at 08:30 am and return around 4pm. Contact David Gair Tel: 07787 154849 or 01224-867285, davidgair@me.com.

Walkers must wear walking boots (gaiters essential), carry WARM and waterproof clothing, hat and gloves and take plenty of food and liquids.

Culter hillwalking club has no members who are qualified leaders or instructors. Therefore anyone volunteering to assist the club on a walk cannot be held responsible for other members' welfare. Members must be aware they are solely responsible for themselves at all times. Hillwalking and mountaineering are activities with a danger of personal injury and death. Those participating in these activities should be aware of the risks and accept the responsibility for their own actions and involvement. No responsibility can be accepted by Culter Hillwalking club committee, members, guests or co-ordinators of walks for any mishap, which may occur, during a walk. Dog owners must ensure that their dogs are on a short lead at all times.
