

Culter Hillwalking Club

Sunday 1st March 2026

Long Walk – Hill of Cammie (618m) Wester Cairn (717m) Bennygray (558m) and Mount Een (529m) from Tarfside

Starting from the Tarfside carpark, GR NO 492797, we follow the track N towards Glentennet and continue on to Hill of Cammie. We then follow clear track again lower down to the head of Glen Tennet, stopping to observe Loch Tennet, the smallest named Loch in Scotland and where the Water of Aven originates. Bizarrely, the Burn of Tennet, running the length of Glen Tennet, does not originate at the loch. We climb on track under Mount Battock to Wester Cairn, then Bennygray and on to Mount Een. Still on track we then head to Craig Soates and back to the cars at Tarfside.

Total distance 20km, duration 6-7 hrs, ascent 750m OS map 44 Ballater. Requires a moderate level of fitness.

Meet 8.00am St. Peter's Heritage Centre, Peterculter, Please indicate if you are willing to drive or need a lift.

Book with Sandra Steel by Thursday 26th February.

Saunter – Glen Tanar-Baudy Meg NO495938 circuit

From the car park we'll go past the visitor centre and go right at the Firmouth path junction NO481951 following the track uphill and round Baudy Meg continuing north past Black Craig and down to the track alongside of the Water of Tanar. Follow the river upstream back to the visitor centre and car park.

Total distance 12km, ascent 300m, approx. 4.5 hrs. Meet at the car park (charges apply) at 10.30

Book with Coordinator Malcolm Smith by Friday Feb 27th.
